Bert Goens Learning Center in cooperation with the USDA will be offering meals free of charge for those students attending Virtual Learning or Face to Face Learning to those students who are enrolled in Bert Goens Learning Center until December 31, 2020. As always the Van Buren Tech Food Services Program/ Culinary Arts Program will be preparing these meals.

Please let us know if you are planning on having both Breakfast and Lunch for your student who is enrolled or you may fill out the form found online at the Learning Center website.

Meal deliveries will continue on the same schedule as we are using now. Virtual Learning Students will be provided with 10 days of meals every other Friday. Face to Face Students will have their meals for Friday's they are in attendance go home with them on buses on Thursday each week.

If you have any questions or there are changes in your request please contact Jodi Sower, 269-539-5067, or Sherry Miller, 269-539-5235 at the Learning Center, or Diana Stump, 269-539-5310 at the Van Buren Tech.

Thank you and we are looking forward to making sure your child is being provided food, with the help of our Culinary Arts Program making the meals and the National School Lunch Program providing the funding.
